Write Away Together

A one day course to equip practitioners to implement a one to one group intervention to raise attainment in writing, as well as developing a skill base to support pupils' general writing development from Y2 to Y6

'Write Away Together' is a one-to-one intervention programme targeted at Y2 to Y6 pupils. The intervention lessons are delivered two times per week by teaching assistants for a minimum of 10 weeks. Each session lasts for 20 - 30 minutes and includes:

- Supporting pupils to develop key strategies for evaluating and improving their writing
- A focus on the key areas of grammar to ensure effective composition
- Ongoing assessment

Trainer: Jan Owens

This course will address:

- The implementation of a clear structure to support the improvement of pupils' writing
- Assessment for learning, identifying key next steps to improve writing
- The key elements of grammar (i.e. text cohesion, word choice, sentence structure and punctuation) to support effective composition
- Guidance on implementing the programme as a small group intervention
- How key principles of the programme can support shared and guided writing

Please could all delegates bring examples of pupils' independent writing to use as a focus for developing a Write Away Together intervention lesson

Contact: Jan Owens: jan@ey2p.org OR 07825 738 486

Target Audience: Y2 to Y6 TAs and SENCOs

(It is recommended a teacher accompanies TAs to ensure maximum impact on pupil attainment)

What they said about the course:

"I have really enjoyed today and can see how WAT can have a positive impact on children. I feel confident in going back to school sharing the information and delivering the interventions."

"Fantastic training. Can't wait to start the intervention and implement it across the school."

"Really useful thank you - will use some resources in whole class teaching too!"
